

I've Learned Enough About Jesus...

2 February 2019

These questions are here to stimulate dialogue about today's topic - feel free to skip around or discuss items not listed below.

1. What's something you didn't like as a child but that you like now as an adult? What brought on the change?
2. What does immaturity in Christ look like? What does maturity in Christ look like?
3. Jesus lives to plead for us - what does this say about what He thinks of us?
4. Can you experience Jesus without knowing about Him? Can you know about Him without experiencing Him? How can we grow in both knowledge & experience?
5. Jesus invites us into an "exchange" in Revelation 3:17-20

You say, 'I am rich. I have everything I want. I don't need a thing!' And you don't realize that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked. 18 So I advise you to buy gold from me—gold that has been purified by fire. Then you will be rich. Also buy white garments from me so you will not be shamed by your nakedness, and ointment for your eyes so you will be able to see. 19 I correct and discipline everyone I love. So be diligent and turn from your indifference. 20 "Look! I stand at the door and knock. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in, and we will share a meal together as friends.

What does Jesus asks us to give up? (i.e. what attitudes) What does He offer in exchange?
